

BUDAPEST - VIENNA - PRAGUE

It was about time to put a trip together through the roots of my homeland, Austria. Now we are shaped like a little banjo but 100 years ago half of Europe was ruled by the Austrian-Hungarian Empire. I picked three of the pearls of Austria's history with Budapest, Vienna and Prague to show you what the Habsburg's were capable of. Fantastic architecture, fabulous food and three cultures that are so different it's hard to believe they were all part of one country. 4* hotels and half board are part of this trip through the heart of Europe...
